

Girls Throw Back Hall Fashions

For girls at Throw Back Hall, the fashion time machine offers endless possibilities to rock iconic looks from each era! Dive into the fun with these ideas!

Please note, Camp Mac does not take a position on the quality or content of the movies listed below or their appropriateness or lack thereof for your child. These movies are simply offered for parents to use as a resource for fashion inspiration for each decade to help select costumes for their child for Throw Back Hall.

40s:

- Big Band: Channel your inner Ella Fitzgerald or Billie Holiday with a vintage dress, pearls, and a microphone to belt out classic tunes. Practice your stage presence and improvisation skills! Ever wanted to be a saxophone player, trumpet master, or trombone whiz? Now's your chance! Grab a pretend instrument (or even an imaginary one!), put on a cool bandana, and jam along to the swingin' music. Bonus points for coolest air solos! Don't see yourself in the band? Grab your dancing shoes and get ready to move your feet like never before! Learn the coolest swing moves from the 1940s, like the Lindy Hop, the Charleston, or the Jitterbug. Don't worry about being perfect, just let the music take over and have a blast!
- Wartime Hero: Pay homage to the bravery of individuals during WWII by researching and portraying someone like Rosie the Riveter, a codebreaker, or a nurse!
- Movie Inspo: Still need ideas? Check out these iconic movies for more inspiration of 1940s culture: Casablanca, It's a Wonderful Life, Pearl Harbor, Broadway Melody of 1940

50s:

- Sock Hop Queen: Channel your inner poodle skirt princess with a vibrant skirt, bobby socks, saddle shoes, and a cute bandana. Don't forget the perfect victory rolls!
- Rockabilly Rebel: Go bold with a printed swing dress or leather pedal pushers, a headscarf, cat-eye sunglasses, and some flats or keds. Let your inner Elvis out with some playful dance moves!

- Movie Inspo: Still need ideas? Check out these iconic movies for more inspiration of 1950s culture: Rebel Without a Cause, Singin' In the Rain, Grease, West Side Story, Love Me Tender

60s:

- Groovy Chick: Embrace the flower power vibes with a floral maxi dress, go-go boots, and colorful beads. Peace signs and a bright smile are mandatory!
- Mod Maven: Go bold and geometric with a miniskirt, tights, and a patterned top. Don't forget the white boots and a swinging ponytail for a truly mod look!
- Movie Inspo: Still need ideas? Check out these iconic movies for more inspiration of 1960s culture: Austin Powers, Endless Summer, Space Odyssey, Pulp Fiction, Hairspray

70s:

- Disco Diva: Get ready to shine with a sequined jumpsuit, platform shoes, and big, bouncy hair. Bonus points for a disco ball purse and some killer dance moves!
- Boho Babe: Channel your inner Stevie Nicks with a flowing maxi dress, a fringed vest, and some statement jewelry. Don't forget the feather headband and a touch of peace and love!
- Movie Inspo: Still need ideas? Check out these iconic movies for more inspiration of 1970s culture: Saturday Night Fever, Forrest Gump, Dazed & Confused, American Graffiti

80s:

- Neon Dream: Embrace the vibrant 80s with leg warmers, neon leggings, and an off-the-shoulder top. Add a scrunchie, some fingerless gloves, and go big with the hair for the ultimate 80s look!
- Pop Princess: Channel your inner Madonna or Whitney Houston with a lace dress, big earrings, and some high heels. Don't forget the big hair and confidence to belt out your favorite tunes!
- Movie Inspo: Still need ideas? Check out these iconic movies for more inspiration of 1980s culture: Footloose, Dirty Dancing, Flash Dance, Fame, Back to the Future, Stayin' Alive, Richard Simmons Sweatin' to the Oldies!

90s:

- Grunge Goddess: Show your edge with ripped jeans, a flannel shirt tied around your waist, and a band t-shirt. Doc Martens and combat boots complete the look, and don't forget the choker necklace!
- Space Girl Sisterhood: Grab your friends and go girl power with platform sneakers, colorful tracksuits, and butterfly clips or pigtails. Practice your best "Wannabe" poses and get ready to spice up the dance floor!
- Movie Inspo: Still need ideas? Check out these iconic movies for more inspiration of 1990s culture: Clueless, Spice World, Empire Records, Wayne's World, *NSYNC: Bigger Than Live

00s:

- Juicy Couture Queen: Channel your inner Paris Hilton with a velour tracksuit, sparkly accessories, and platform sandals. Big sunglasses and a chihuahua (stuffed animal, of course!) complete the look!
- Pop Star Wannabe: Get ready to shine with a sequined skirt, a colorful top, and some knee-high boots. Big hair, bright lipstick, and killer dance moves complete the look!
- Movie Inspo: Still need ideas? Check out these iconic movies for more inspiration of 2000s culture: Mean Girls, Bring It On, Step Up, 10 Things I Hate About You, Crossroads, the Simple Life

Remember, these are just suggestions! The most important thing is to have fun and express your unique style. Mix and match eras, add your own personal touch, and rock the dance floor with confidence!